

CHILDREN IN HISTORY

Saturday, December 8th

Kaya at the Springs

Meet American Girl Kaya, Native American girl living close to the land. Hear her story and learn about two friends, Tonkawa girl Kingfisher and Comanche boy Quiver and Bow. Hunt for flint to put in the Parfleche you make for your doll. Try your hand at making rope, to use with Kirsten's cornhusk doll.

Time: 1 to 4 pm

Location: Beverly S. Sheffield Education Center, Barton Springs bathhouse, Zilker Park

Cost: Free

Kirsten at the Cabin

Meet American Girl Kirsten, just arriving from Sweden to live on the American frontier. Her story will be read in the Garden, where you can tour the Swedish Cabin and learn about the Texas frontier girl born there. Try your hand at frontier chores, and make a corn husk doll for your doll. Receive a bead to use for trade with Kaya at the Springs.

Time: 1 to 4 pm

Location: Zilker Botanical Garden, 2220 Barton Springs Road, 78746

Cost: Program free, entry to Garden is $2 for adults/$1 for children 3-12, and seniors.

Saturday, December 15th

Samantha at the O. Henry

Meet Victorian Era American Girl Samantha at the O. Henry Museum. Hear her story and learn about Margaret Porter, O. Henry's daughter, and how Margaret and Samantha could have been friends.

Time: 1 to 5 pm

Location: The O. Henry Museum, 409 E. 5th Street

Cost: Free

Cécile and Marie-Grace at the Dickinson

Meet American Girls Cécile and Marie-Grace at the Dickinson Museum and hear about their lives in New Orleans, working during the yellow fever epidemic, just like Susanna Dickinson's daughter Angelina. Bring your dolls if you like, and have a beautiful silhouette portrait made for you to take home and enjoy!

Time: 1 to 5 pm

Location: The Joseph and Susanna Dickinson Han-nig Museum, 411 E. 5th Street

Cost: Free

AUSTIN
PARKS &
RECREATION

Cultural Places, Natural Spaces

The City of Austin is proud to comply with the Americans with Disabilities Act. If you require assistance for participation in our programs or use of our facilities, please call (512) 974-3830.